++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A dry, bright day for most.

Today:
A dry, bright day with plenty of sunshine and lighter winds. However, cloud will increase across southern parts later in the afternoon, possibly bringing the odd spot of rain. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
Any outbreaks of rain in the south clearing away to leave a dry night with clear spells giving the risk of some patchy frost and fog. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Tuesday:
A dry but chilly start to Tuesday. Any early fog clearing into the afternoon as winds strengthen and thickening cloud brings some patchy rain, most likely across the Pennines. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Remaining rather cloudy and breezy on Wednesday, with some patchy rain, most likely across the Pennines. Drier and less windy Thursday and Friday, but largely cloudy. Very mild.
